Re: Igartua v. Happy Days Dispensary, Inc.
Case No. 1:24-cv-06594 (LJL)

Dear Judge Liman:

Our office represents Plaintiff Juan Igartua ("Plaintiff") in the above-referenced Americans with Disabilities Act ("ADA") matter against Defendant, Happy Days Dispensary, Inc. ("Defendant"), which was filed on August 30, 2024. The Summons was issued on September 3, 2024 (ECF Dkt. 4). We sent the Summons and Complaint to our process servers, Meridian Investigations & Security in Port Washington, New York, for service upon the Defendants. Unfortunately, we have not yet received the Affidavit of Service in return.

Due to unforeseen staffing issues, we have been unable to prosecute this action promptly. Our Chief Counsel, Mr. Nathaniel Peckhart, and our Paralegal for the ADA Division, who maintained our Calendar, both left our firm in the same week, leaving us significantly understaffed. However, we have recently hired new personnel for this Division and are working diligently to catch up on all pending matters.

We respectfully request an adjournment of today's teleconference scheduled for 2:00 p.m. pursuant to Rule 6(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, which permits the court to grant an extension for good cause shown. We apologize for the late filing of this letter motion, which is a result of the aforementioned unforeseen staffing issues. We are also attempting to contact the Defendants via email and phone calls.

We will apprise the Court of our status within 15 days, as required by Rule 16(b) to ensure continued progress in the case.

Thank you for your understanding and consideration.

Sincerely,

Jon L. Norinsberg, Esq.
